

Top 10

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) Online Resources

Introduction..... 2

Top 10 PBIS Online Resources 3–12

About Us..... 13

Learn More 14

Positive Behavior Support, Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports, PBS, PBIS—these terms and abbreviations are used interchangeably, but what do they all mean?

PBIS is an effective framework for preventing problem behavior and supporting students' social, emotional, and behavioral needs. Comprehensive PBIS plans include intervention strategies designed to decrease disruptive behavior and promote positive choices. Supports include modifying students' environments, teaching students new skills, and controlling staff responses.

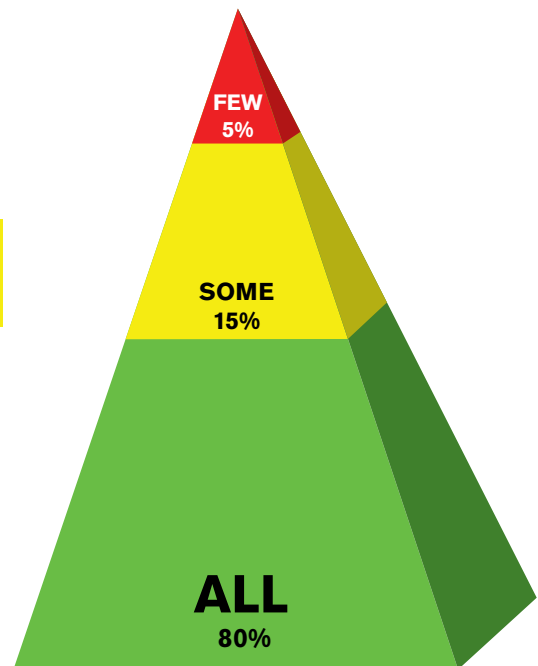

Cascading PBIS strategies throughout your school helps increase student learning and success. PBIS also enhances your ability to provide the best *Care, Welfare, Safety, and Security*SM for your staff, your students, and everyone in your school.

Here we present 10 outstanding online resources dedicated to helping you implement a practical and powerful PBIS program. We wish you much success with advancing PBIS principles and techniques throughout your school or district!

Individual systems for FEW students who display high-risk behavior.

Specialized group systems for SOME students—those who display difficult behavior.

School-wide systems for ALL students and staff.

Disclaimer: Links contained in this eBook do not represent or imply the endorsement by CPI of commercial products or opinions.

1. OSEP Technical Assistance Center on Positive Behavioral Interventions & Supports

This site offers videos, articles, newsletters, and a variety of other resources for schools, families, and communities. Many materials are available in French and Spanish. A calendar of conferences and forums is also available.

2. Association for Positive Behavior Support (APBS)

The APBS hosts conferences and offers networking opportunities, webinars, articles, and a library of resources specific to schools and districts, community agencies, families, and more.

3. National Center on Response to Intervention

The National Center on Response to Intervention provides technical assistance to states and districts implementing Response to Intervention (RTI) and Early Intervening Services (EIS). Offering a monthly eNewsletter, charts, webinars, briefs, and implementation guidance, the site is dedicated to helping educators ensure that all students enjoy the opportunity to succeed.

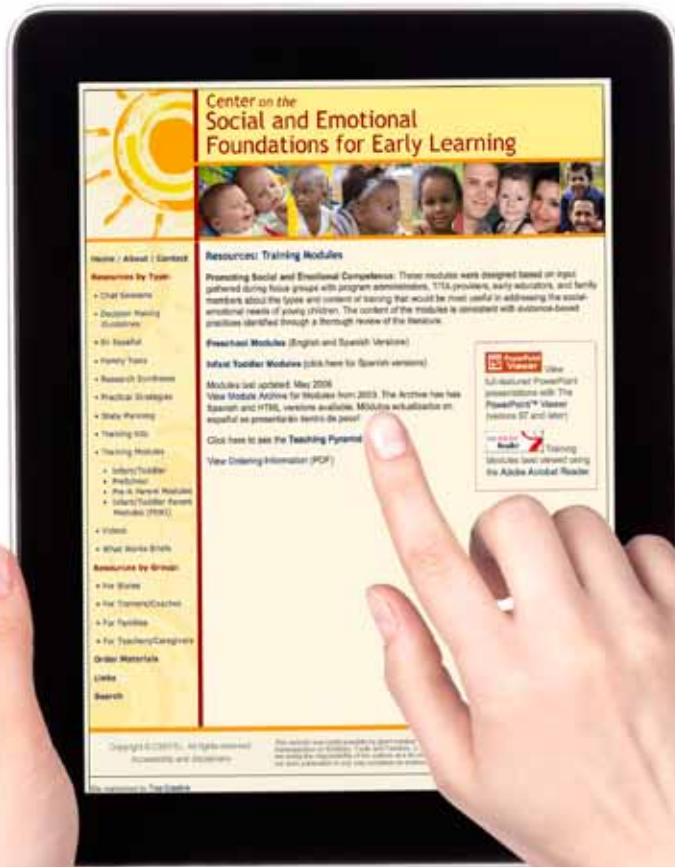

4. School-Wide Information System (SWIS)

The SWIS is a data entry and report generation tool for recording on-site office discipline referral information. Schools can gain access to SWIS through a certified SWIS Facilitator. The website features an SWIS Facilitator List, an SWIS-Readiness Checklist, and resources and tips.

5. Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL)

The CSEFEL website offers decision-making guidelines, training kits and modules, videos, briefs, and other resources for families, teachers, caregivers, trainers, coaches, and states dedicated to supporting kids' social and emotional competence.

6. Positive Beginnings: Supporting Young Children With Challenging Behavior

This site offers online training modules on topics including PBIS, Social and Communication Development, Determining the Meaning of Challenging Behavior, Teaming to Build a Behavior Support Plan, Intervention in Everyday Settings, and Supporting Families. Videos and resource links are also available.

7. What Works Clearinghouse™

The What Works Clearinghouse™ reviews research on programs, products, practices, and policies in education. It offers information for making evidence-based decisions on ways to improve literacy, increase achievement, reduce dropout rates, help students who have special needs, and more.

8. Successful Schools, Inc.

Successful Schools, Inc. offers resources and training in PBIS, response to intervention, building inclusive school environments, classroom management, and functional behavior strategies. Resources such as articles, activities, and handouts are also available on the site.

9. Florida's Positive Behavior Support Project

This site features videos, guides, online modules, newsletters, and other resources and tools to help Florida school districts address problem behavior.

10. The Technical Assistance Center on Social Emotional Intervention for Young Children (TACSEI)

TACSEI highlights evidence-based practices that improve social-emotional outcomes for children with, or at risk for, delays or disabilities. Free products and resources including webinars, newsletters, and tutorials are available.

The author of this eBook, Susan Keith, is a CPI Global Professional Instructor and co-author of the PBIS Post: A Positive Behavioral Support Blog on crisisprevention.com.

Susan has over 15 years of experience teaching CPI's Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® training program. She is also a key contributor to CPI's program development team.

Check out a video to learn more about Susan's role and what she loves about her job.

Click here to visit cpisite.com/pbis.

CPI is an international training organization committed to best practices and safe behavior management methods that focus on prevention. Through a variety of specialized offerings and innovative resources, CPI educates and empowers professionals to create safe and respectful work environments.

We Can Help!

To find out more about CPI and PBIS:

- Visit us at cpisite.com/pbis.
- Examine how our Nonviolent Crisis Intervention[®] training program supports PBIS concepts, premises, and strategies.
- To discuss your training needs with a Nonviolent Crisis Intervention[®] Training Specialist, call 800.558.8976 or email info@crisisprevention.com.

educate. empower. enrich.

© 2013 CPI. You may retain a copy of this material to be used solely for your personal, noncommercial use provided you do not remove any trademark, copyright, or other notice from such material. As long as it is for your own personal use only, you may print copies of this information and store the file on your computer. You may also email copies of this information to others only by using the link provided within the material specifically for such purpose. Any other use or redistribution is strictly prohibited. CPI[®] and Nonviolent Crisis Intervention[®] are registered trademarks of CPI.